May 2016

Dear Fellow Workers in Christ's Kingdom:

Pentecost is not just a festival of the New Testament. It was the second of three annual festivals for the Old Testament believers. The name was "Feast of Weeks," a harvest celebration. It is not too difficult to connect the Old Testament festival with the Pentecost we celebrate today as New Testament Christians, recorded in Acts chapter 2. Just as God provides a harvest of food at the proper time (Psalm 104:27-28), so we observe at Pentecost a harvest of souls by God the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:41). Through his continuing work in the church today by his Means of Grace, the Holy Spirit causes the seed of the gospel to germinate in people's hearts and produce bountiful fruits of faith. What a privilege we have to go about the Spirit's work, always acknowledging him as the "Lord and Giver of Life!"

Blessings in our risen and ascended Lord,

John A. Moldstad

On Sunday afternoon, April 24, 2016, the synod president had an opportunity to make two presentations (history of the synod & update on our mission work) to a well-attended Lay Circuit Conference encompassing the circuit's ten congregations. Members gathered an offering to be sent to one of our synod's new home mission congregations. After the day's meeting, a delicious supper was served by the ladies of the Oak Park Parish.

Synod Centennial Photo

This June at Synod Convention group photographs will be taken of both the assembled convention in the gymnasium and also a group photograph of the clergy. These photographs will be taken during the conclusion of the Tuesday morning session. As these will serve as the centennial photographs, both delegates and pastors should make special efforts to be present.

Anniversary Offering

The 100th anniversary of our Evangelical Lutheran Synod is being observed in 2018. Next year (2017) we also observe the 500th anniversary of the Lutheran Reformation. In conjunction with these important anniversaries our synod is conducting a synod-wide thankoffering to provide support for our home missions and for the training of seminarians through the vicar-in-mission program. Pastors and delegates to our June convention are being asked to participate in the kick-off by bringing gifts and/or promises as a way to initiate the offering. "O give thanks unto the Lord for He is good, for His mercy endures forever!"

The commencement service for Bethany Lutheran Theological Seminary will take place on Wednesday, May 11, at 4:00 p.m. in Trinity Chapel. This year the Seminary Pastors' Institute will take place at Bethany Lutheran Theological Seminary on July 6-7. Professor Timothy Schmeling will give a presentation on "Concordia, Discordia, Et Irenicum: The Reception of the Book of Concord in Seventeenth Century Braunschweig Lutheranism." This presentation will demonstrate how the Book of Concord was received in the northern German states. It explains some of the conflicts involved in the acceptance of the Book of Concord in Lutheran lands and helps explain the genesis of the Syncretistic Controversy (ca. 1645-86) of the seventeenth century. President Gaylin Schmeling will give a presentation on "Church of the Lutheran Confession: Then and Now," centering on the origin and recent history of the CLC. Please contact the seminary to register.
