

Death of Pastor Jerry Dalke

Our dear friend and brother, Jerry Dalke, died on May 10. Jerry had served St. Luke Lutheran Church, Mt. Vernon, Washington, for 38 years. He had been bi-vocational much of that time working as a building contractor. Last year he announced that his body could no longer take that kind of strenuous work and was pursuing getting his real estate license to supplement his income. He, Paula (his wife), and their family have quietly sacrificed much for the kingdom of our Lord without complaint. Blessed be his memory for Jesus' sake.

Congratulations on a Well-Deserved Honor

On Friday, May 21, Professor Emeritus Erling Teigen of our Bethany Lutheran College and Seminary received a Doctor of Divinity Degree, Honoris Causa ("For the sake of honor") in a ceremony at Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne. These words were read along with his CV: "We in the Evangelical Lutheran Synod are pleased to have one of her favorite sons receive this well-deserved honor from Concordia Theological Seminary. By having conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity, honoris causa, Erling is being recognized for what so many of his students and colleagues have long appreciated. His contributions to our theological discussions have not only guided us through some difficult conflicts with stalwart confessional integrity, but his willingness to serve our Lord as a humble theologian of the cross professionally as well as in his personal life has been an inspiration to us all."

The day before, Dr. Teigen was also presented a copy of a Festschrift published for this occasion. "My Savior's Guest: A Festschrift in Honor of Erling Trygve Teigen," edited by some of Dr. Teigen's former students, will be available soon at our Bethany Bookstore as well as online. It consists of 20 essays penned by colleagues and former students centering on the theme of salvation distributed and received. We offer our congratulations to Dr. Teigen in receiving these well-deserved honors.

Dear Members and Friends of the ELS:

Sadly, we are hearing reports within and without the ELS that on account of the pandemic some Christian congregations in our land are experiencing divisions among their membership. In some places Satan is having a field day dividing believers between those whose consciences are requiring them to comply with governmental restrictions and those for the same reason who refuse to comply. Our Lord has graciously allowed us in the U.S. to gather together with various levels of restrictions in subjection to the governing authorities. When we are not commanded by those authorities to disobey our Lord, we need humbly to submit to one another out of reverence for Christ (Rom. 13 and Eph. 5:21). Brothers and sisters in Christ, I commend you for humbling yourselves for the sake of each other without strife and discord. You are then walking "in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." Therefore, continue to "be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you." (Eph. 4:2–3 & 32). May our gracious Lord continue to bless us all with the wisdom and strength to live in peaceful harmony with one another, so that the devil's schemes may be thwarted among us.

Heritage of Hymns

Monday, June 21, 2021, at 6:00 pm in Trinity Chapel:

This year’s Heritage of Hymns will feature some of the earliest Lutheran hymns and composers from the 1500s and 1600s. Johann Walter was a musician and a colleague of Martin Luther. He published the influential Babst hymnbook, for which Martin Luther wrote an important preface. We will hear musical settings by Johann Walter, Johann Hermann Schein, Michael Praetorius, Johann Christoph Bach, and Johann Pachelbel. A few hymns and tunes will be familiar, but many will be new to us and give us a glimpse into our early Lutheran heritage. The music will have a Renaissance and early Baroque sound. Please join us!

Apologetics Seminar

“Why Does Moses Matter to Christians?” The Center for Apologetics and Worldviews is sponsoring the third annual ELS Apologetics Seminar on June 23 (evening) and June 24 (all day, following the synod convention). Admission is free to attend in person at Bethany Lutheran College or worldwide via livestream video. Archaeologist-linguist Dr. Douglas Petrovich will serve as the keynote speaker. The conference also will include an Apologetics Writers’ Workshop, highlighting practical applications for evangelism. This history begins with an overview of the seminary of the Norwegian Synod and continues with the details of our own Bethany Lutheran Theological Seminary. The 200-page book serves as a companion to the 2017 synodical history, Proclaim His Wonders. Following the convention, copies can be ordered through the Bethany Lutheran College Bookstore for $18 plus shipping (700 Luther Drive, Mankato, MN 56001 or 800-944-1722).
