

EASTER GOSPEL: Mark 16:1-8

Now when the Sab-bath was past, Mar-y Mag-da-lene, Mar-y the mo-ther of James, and Sa - lo - me bought spi - ces, that they might come and a - noint Him.

And very ear - ly in the morn - ing, on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had ris-en. And they said a - mong them-selves,

“Who will roll a-way the stone from the door of the tomb for us?” But when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled a - way— for it was ver - y large.

And en - ter - ing the tomb, they saw a young man clothed in a long white robe sit - ting on the right side; and they were a-larmed. But he said to them, “Do not be a-larmed. You seek Je-sus of Na-za-reth, who was cru - ci-fied.

He is ri-sen! He is not here. See the place where they laid Him. But go your way, tell His dis-ci-ples— and Pe-ter— that He is go-ing be-fore you in-to Ga-li-lee;

there you will see Him, as He said to you.”

And they went out quick-ly and fled from the tomb, for they trem-bled and were a-mazed.

And they said no-thing to a - ny - one, for they were a - fraid.
