FOREWORD

The Propers for the Christian Church Year have a long history. Many of the Introits, Collects, Graduals, and Alleluia Verses included in this resource can be traced to the 5th century. The historic series of Epistle and Gospel readings dates to the 9th century. The Evangelical Lutheran Hymnary (ELH-1996) was shaped by these Propers. The ELH organizes its hymns according to the Historic Lectionary, just like one of its predecessor hymnbooks, The Lutheran Hymnary (1913). The ELH also provides the text for the historic Introits, Collects, and Seasonal Alleluias in the front part of the book.

After the publication of the ELH, Mark DeGarmeaux compiled a Book of Lessons and Prayers which assigned chant tones to the Introits and Seasonal Alleluias. Others provided tones for singing the Collects. This book of Propers is based on that work and expands on it. The historic Graduals and daily Alleluia Verses—not printed in the ELH—are given here. They are updated from the Propers printed in the front part of The Lutheran Hymnal (TLH-1941), another predecessor hymnbook to the ELH.

The Gradual and the Alleluia Verse are each given their own place in this resource, instead of being conflated like they are in TLH. The Gradual is sung between the Old Testament and Epistle lessons when the Psalm for the day is not used. The Alleluia Verse is sung between the Epistle and the Holy Gospel. In this resource, the first Alleluia Verse is the one for that particular Sunday or festival day. The second (and third in the Trinity season) is the Alleluia Verse for the season (in bold on pp. 142-146 of the ELH).

The suggested tones for chanting the Propers are the same ones given for the Psalms in the ELH (pp. 173-198), which have their roots in Gregorian chant. The tones for the Rite I form of the Collects are based on the work of John Dahle and M. Casper Johnshoy in The Liturgical Service of the Lutheran Church (1922), published as a liturgical companion to The Lutheran Hymnary (1913). The tones for the Rite II form of the Collects match the chant style from TLH and its companion liturgical book, The Music for the Liturgy (1944).

The alternate Scripture readings and the suggested hymns coincide with the readings of the Historic Lectionary. The first hymn in the list is suggested as the hymn of the day. The second hymn is of Scandinavian origin, pointing to the unique history and heritage of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod.

Nothing given here is particularly new, though we hope this resource will help pastors and parishioners look at our rich liturgical treasures with new appreciation. Many have sung these words before us, and many will sing them after us until our Lord returns in glory on the great day of resurrection. With the holy Church we sing, "Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, forevermore. Amen."

Christmas Gospel: Luke 2:1-14 (or 1-20)

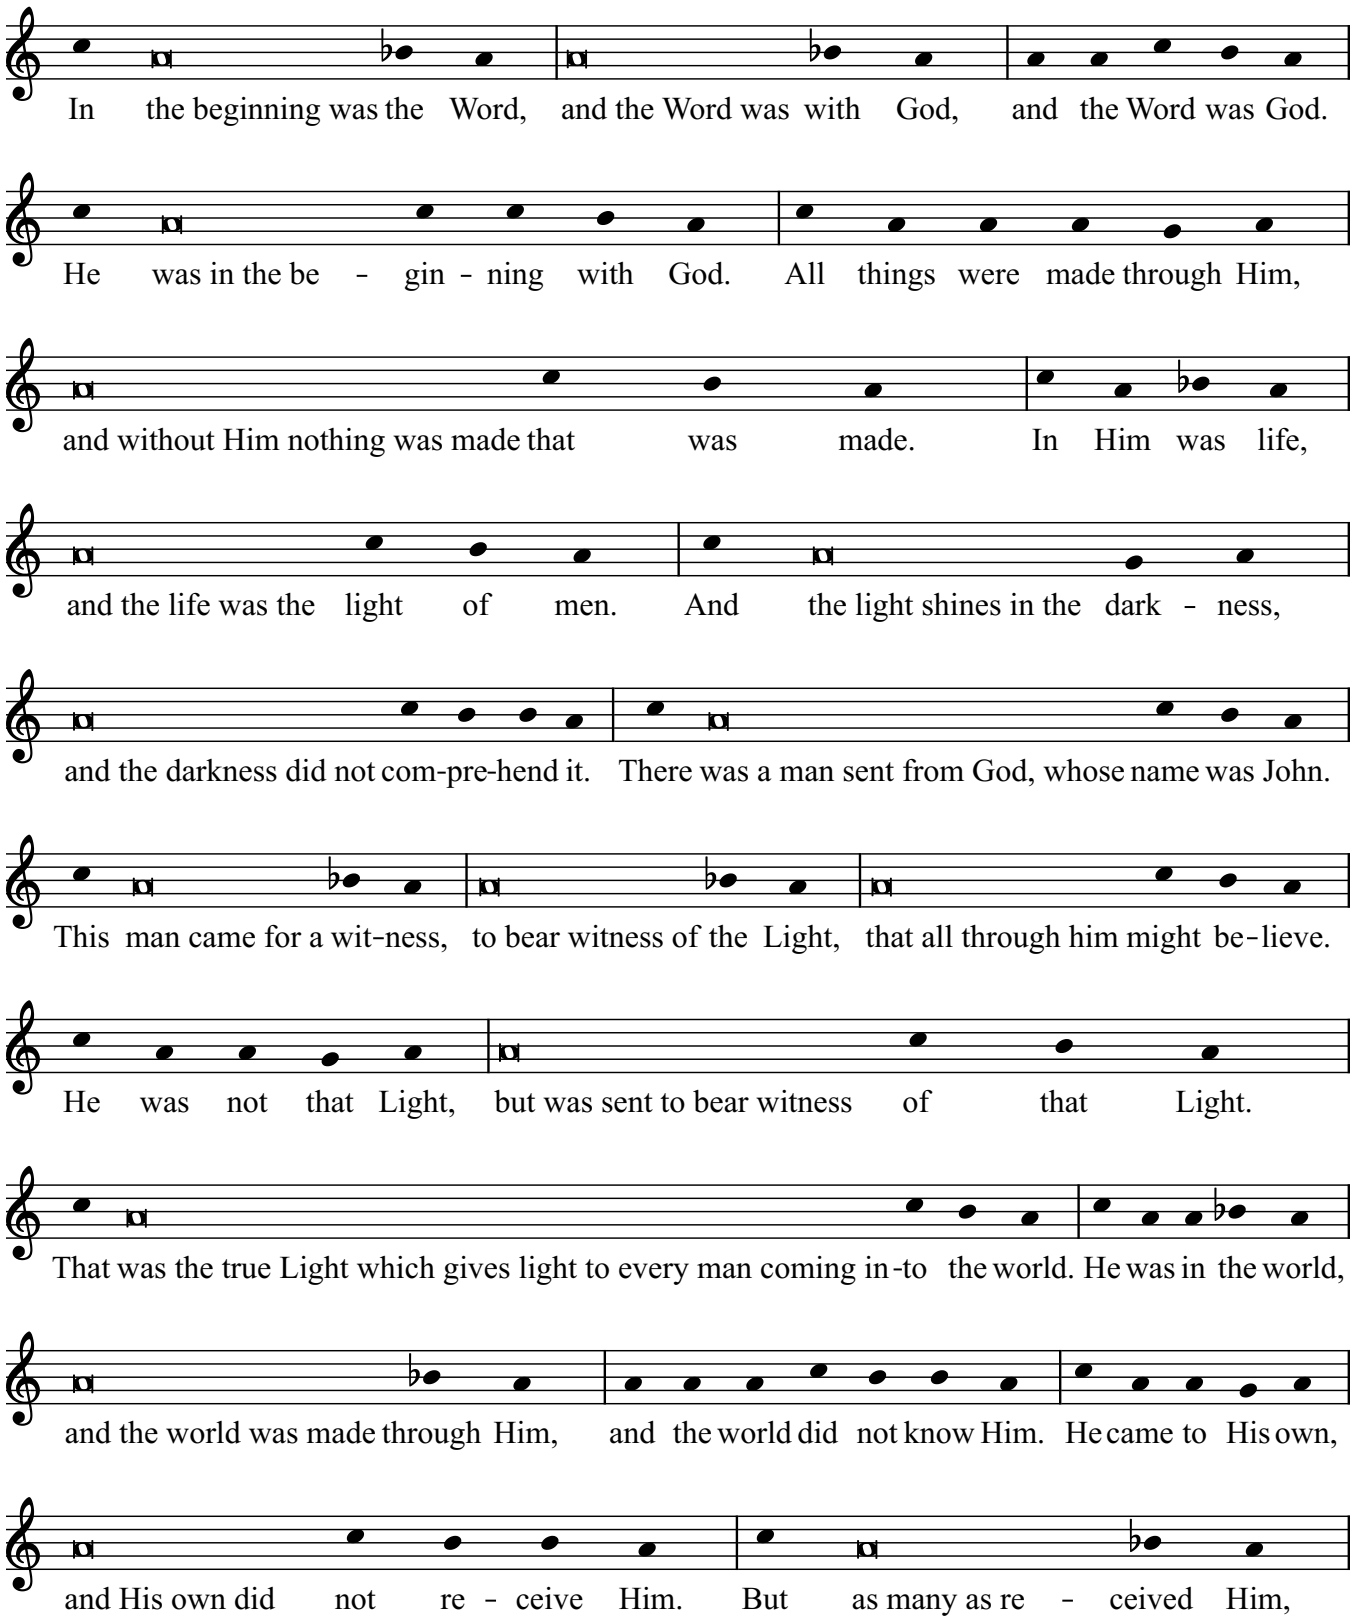

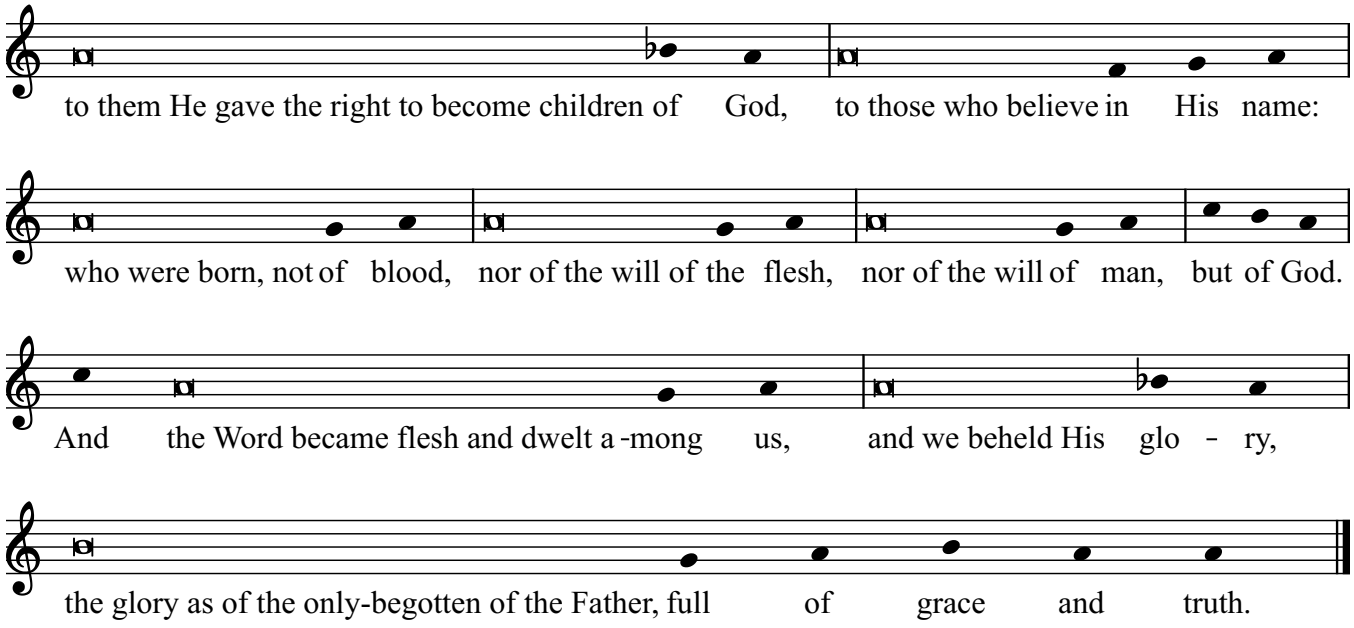

And there were in the same country shep - herds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And lo, the angel of the Lord came up-on them, and the glory of the Lord shone around a-bout them: and they were sore a - fraid.
And the an-gel said un-to them, Fear not: for, be-hold, I bring you good ti-dings of great joy, which shall be to all peo-ple. For unto you is born this day in the city of Da-vid a Sav-iour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign un - to you;
Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swad - dling clothes, ly-ing in a man-ger.
And suddenly there was with the an-gel a multitude of the heav'n-ly host prais-ing God, and say-ing,
Glory to God in the high - est, and on earth peace, good will toward men.
